Contemporary Artist & Artwear Designer
Abstract, Textured & Figurative Works

Introduction

Safa Hajjaji is a self-taught contemporary artist and artwear designer from Tunisia

Her work blends emotion, femininity, and freedom through textured, abstract, and figurative forms.

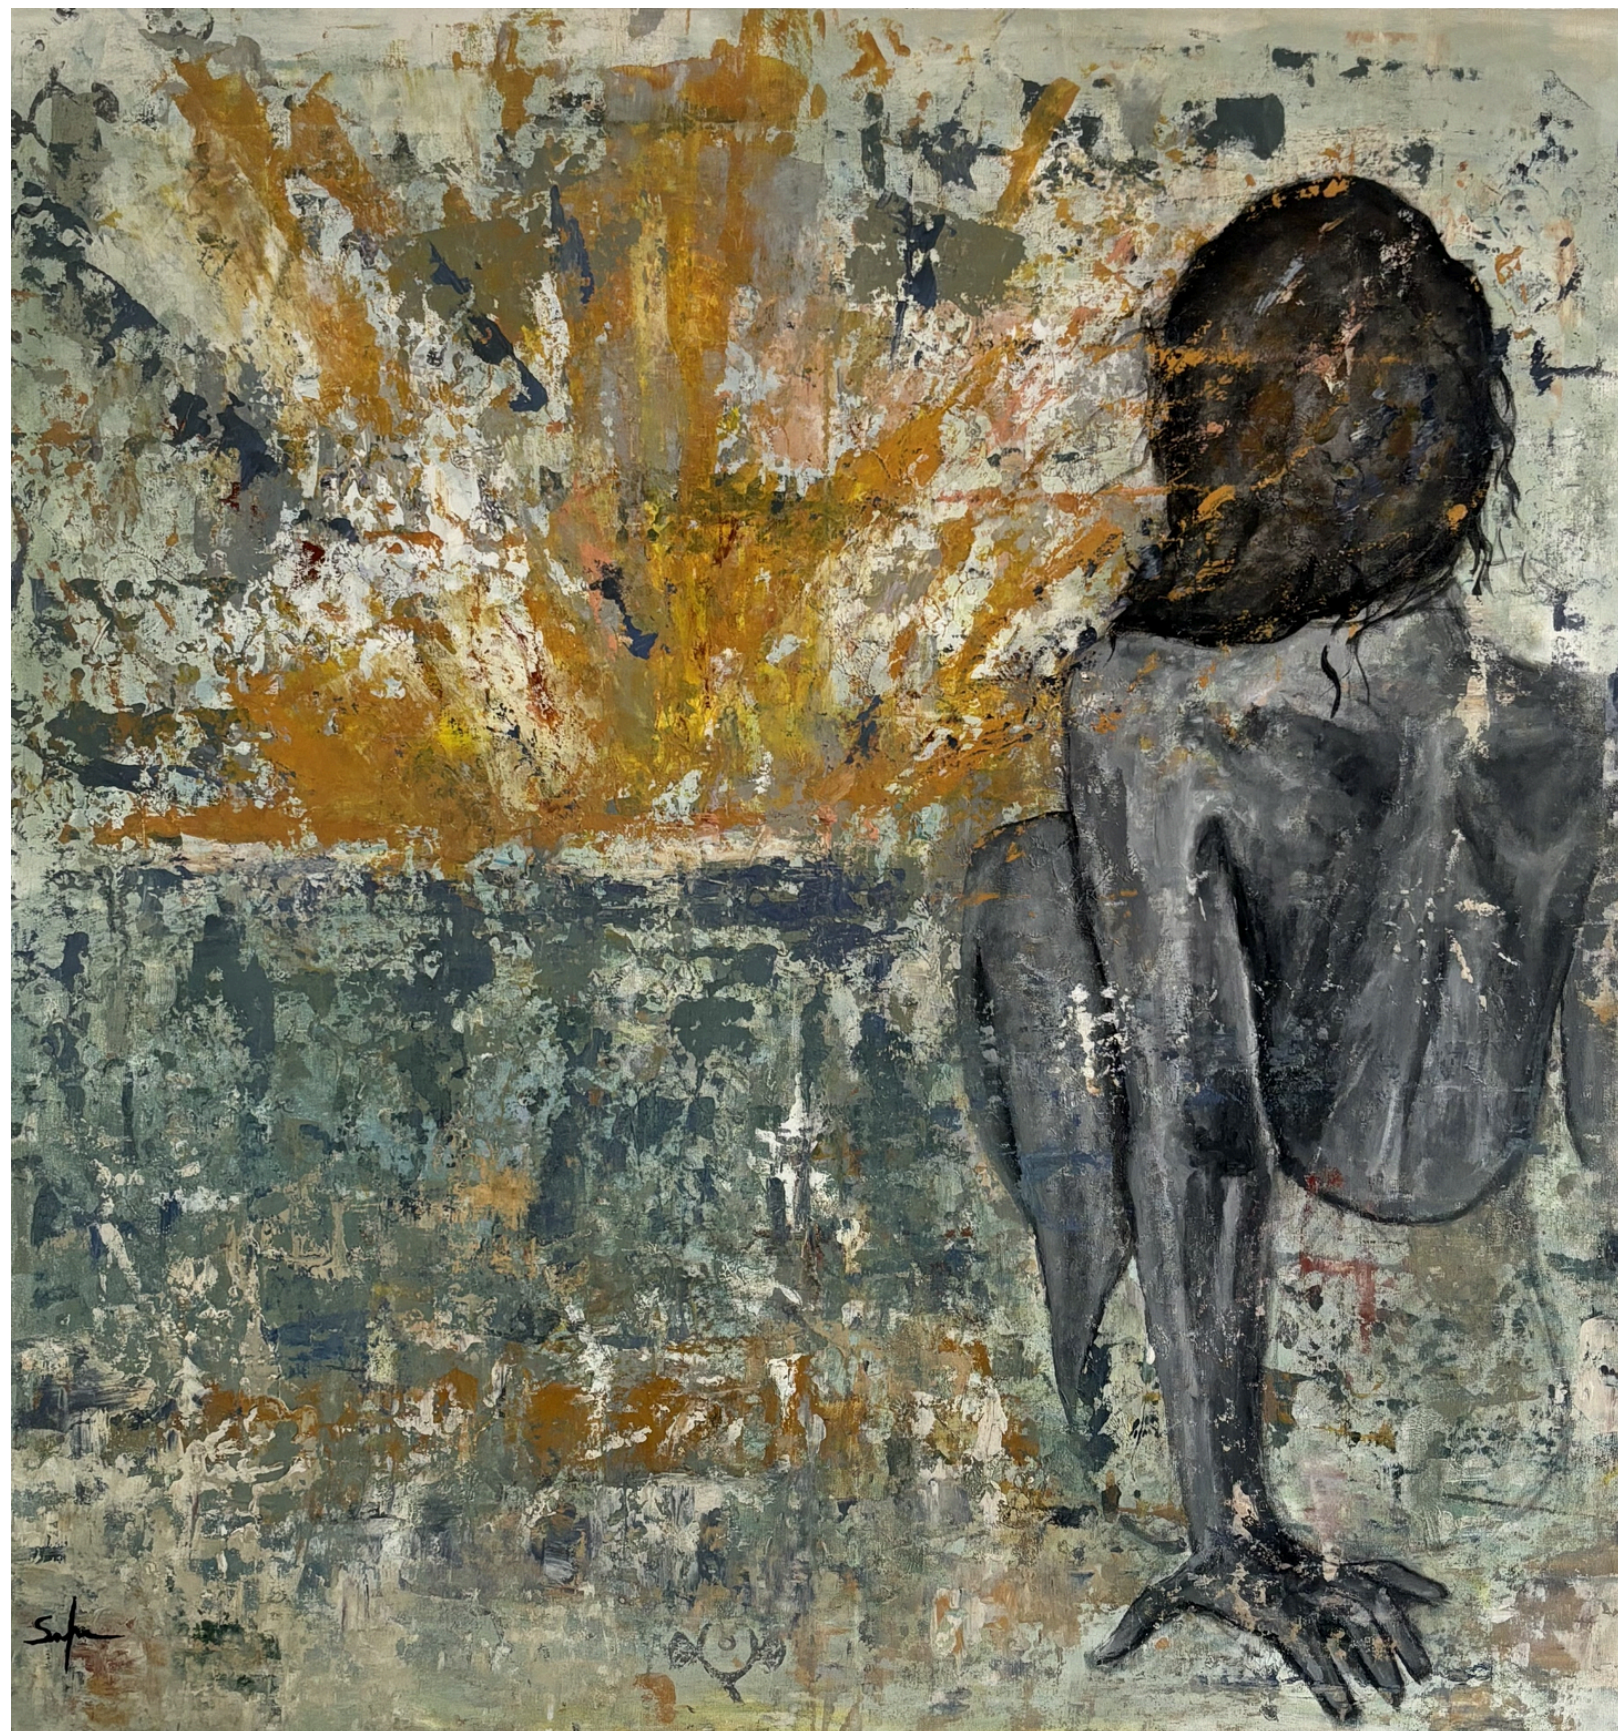

Each figure, often in grey tones, reflects parts of her essence, her Amazigh roots, strength, and evolution.

Her wearable art brings these stories into daily life, merging painting and fashion.

Title: Kerkennah Sunset Awakening
Year: 2024
Medium: Oil and Acrylic
Technique: Mixed Media, textured painting
Dimensions: 100 x 100 cm

"Kerkennah Sunset Awakening" captures a moment of self reflection and connection during a solo journey to the Kerkennah Islands in September 2024. The painting features a horizon where sea and sky blend in gold and blue hues, with textured layers mimicking the sea's movement and the magical sunset glow of Kerkennah. A Subtle Amazigh symbols within the textures honor my amazigh heritage, making this piece a fusion of nature, transformation, and ancestral echoes.

Title: Between Clouds And Moon
Year: 2025
Medium: Oil and Acrylic
Technique: Mixed Media, textured painting
Dimensions: 130 x 90 cm

Inspired by the artist's own journey, "Between Clouds And Moon" captures a moment of rising, between veils of doubt, memory, and softness. The textures speak of layers she's lived through, while the full moon reflects the light she's always carried. It's a piece about becoming, about honoring the divine feminine through stillness, heritage, and intuition. A sacred ascent, between clouds and moon.

Title: The Way Is Hers
Year: 2025
Medium: Oil and Acrylic
Technique: Mixed Media, textured painting
Dimensions: 130 x 150 cm

This painting embodies quiet courage and the sacred act of choosing oneself. Inspired by the artist's own journey, "The Way Is Hers" reflects a moment of letting go and personal liberation, a silent, barefoot walk toward light, guided by intuition and wrapped in divine grace, she carries no past, only purpose.

Title: Bright Flow
Year: 2025
Medium: Oil and Acrylic
Technique: Mixed Media, textured
Dimensions: 100 x 150 cm

"Bright Flow" is a luminous embodiment of identity, heritage, and self-expression. The luminous white veil symbolizes clarity and an unwavering belief and trust in the future, while the soft yet fiery background reflects warmth and the golden glow of endless possibilities. Subtle Amazigh elements within the composition ground the piece in my heritage, making it a fusion of vision, tradition, and self-reflection.

Title: The Liberating Messengers
Year: 2025
Medium: Oil and Acrylic
Technique: Mixed Media, textured painting
Dimensions: 100 x 80 cm

“The Liberating Messengers” is a meditative exploration of emotional release, daydreaming and inner rebirth, where she becomes one with an abstract sky of green tones and textured whites; now transformed into liberated wings. Three birds, her messengers of freedom, each one carrying away fragments of the stories that no longer define her. The dominant green tones whisper renewal, while the softness of her face invites the viewer into her quiet rebirth. Textured Amazigh symbolizing freedom and also refers to culture and origins

"Mon Chemin De Paix 79" represents a personal journey of transformation and resilience.
Incorporating collage elements from Gandhi's Book "Mon Chemin de Paix," this art features textured layers of oil and acrylic that invite deeper exploration.
Subtle Amazigh symbols honor my heritage, while the interplay of surrender and control reflects the complexities of self-discovery.
